STATUTES OF INDIANA. GAVIN & HORD'S REVISION.

The second volume of Messrs. Gavin & Hord's compilation of Indiana Statutes has just appeared. This volume completes their work. Its mechanical execution is ver creditable; and the skill, learning, and labor which the editors have bestowed on it, merit the highest praise. None but learned, diligent lawyers could have produced

The second volume embraces all the public statutes of volumes; so that the reader can see at a glance all the Grant-James Henley legislation in force on any given subject. Take, for ex- | Greene-John Humphreys....... Pleas-the editors publish the act at large, and they also Hancock-Geo. Y. Atkinson print, in the form of notes on the same pages containing Hancock and Shelby-James L. Mason 1 this statute, all the acts amendatory to it which have Hamilton and Tipton-James O'Brien. been passed up to this time. And so they have done of Henry-Charles D. Morgan...... all the other acts contained in the revision of 1852.

The editors have added much to the value of these volumes-especially the last-by the copious and learned notes with which the volumes abound. These notes indicate much labor and legal acumen. They furnish us, in a concise and accurate form, with all the adjudications of our Supreme Court on these statutes. These adjudica- Jefferson-David C. Branham and J. tions being now very numerous, the references to them in the volumes under consideration, will be of great value Johnson-A. V. Pendleton administration of justice. The editors have also referred, Johnson and Morgan-Thomas W. in their notes, to numerous decisions in other States, made on statutes similar to ours.

An excellence of these volumes, not to be overlooked | Kosciusko and Wabash-Jos. Marshal ana, there never has been a good index to any volumes o Lagrange--Francis P. Griffith has been completely remedied in the volumes under review; and these indexes will greatly lighten the labor of all who have occasion to look into our statutes.

This is the first time that private enterprize has attempted the publication of Indiana statutes. The at-Have in store a large and well selected stock of Drugs, tempt, I do not doubt, will be successful, and will duly reward the learned editors and enterprizing publishers. Every lawyer will, of course, purchase these volumes; and every clerk, sheriff, and justice of the peace of the State, will find it to his advantage to own them. and all articles to complete the stock of a Druggist. As DAVID M'DONALD. Indianapolis, June 5, 1862 The foregoing notice by Judge McDonald, of Gavin & Ohio and Switzerland-R. N. Lamb ... Home's Compilation of the Statutes of Indiana, is not designed as a puff of the work, but is an unsolicited commendation of the ability, accuracy, and completeness with which these volumes have been prepared.

The second volume, which has just been issued from the press, is being delivered to subscribers as rapidly as Putnam-Austin H. Puett and George possible. This edition of the statutes will be found a necessity to every lawyer, justices of the peace, and county officers in the State. The publication of the work is a prviate enterprize, and the publishers' only hope for re muneration is in its sale to those for whose convenience it was prepared. The two volumes contain about 1600 pages of matter, nearly double the quantity embraced

The price of the work is $4 50 per volume, or $9 00 for Tippecanoe-Joseph H. Hershey, Samuel the two volumes. Orders addressed to the subscriber wilreceive prompt attention. J. J. BINGHAM. Indianapolis, Ind. June 7th, 1862.
